DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE
ISSUES AUTO BULLETIN No. 30

BACKGROUND

The Delaware Department of Insurance issued Bulletin No. 30 reminding automobile insurers that Delaware Law requires insurers to pay for the following costs when their insured is an at-fault driver:

- Removing both the at-fault and not-at-fault vehicles from a roadway or from property adjacent to a roadway;
- Towing the not-at-fault vehicle from the scene of the accident; and
- Towing the at-fault vehicle from the scene of the accident, but only if that coverage is separately underwritten in the policy.
